

What is a View Strip on a Plastic Bottle / Container?

Regent Plast provides specially designed bottles / containers with two different color materials, i.e. the containers has a view strip vertically, which helps end of user to get the liquid level easily. This kind of products have been used for the lubrication oil.

Applications

Lubrication oil container, industrial container for the chemical

Advantages

Get to know the liquid level by viewing the vertical view line...

If you need additional information, please feel free to contact us at mktg@regentplast.com